

I am looking for a System Analyst and thought I would pass it along for your review. If you are interested and think you meet all of the criteria's, please let me know. Feel free to share this requirement.

Department: Shared Services Canada
Location: 360 Lisgar
Contract Lengths: July 2020 + extensions
Language: English
Security: Secret

Requirements:

Secret Security Clearance Mandatory;
Must have experience in implementing applications to support projects, departments, organizations or corporate services;
Must be able to translate business requirements into systems design and technical specifications;
Must be able to analyze and recommend alternatives and options for technical solutions;
Must be able to analyze business requirements, perform feasibility studies, provide costing estimates for options analysis, map interdependencies, and produce the required functional and technical specifications or process re-engineering recommendations;
Must be able to provide system expertise to both functional and technical teams to ensure effective integration of solutions across the applications;
Must be able to provide application support to the end-users by troubleshooting and correcting issues, providing training and reporting to management.

Staying current with the push towards a more networked and connected community, visit ADRM TEC on:

